

HPN SPRING 2017

APRIL 5-7 | DUBUQUE, IOWA

GUEST SPEAKERS

Mary Tarbox, BSN, MSPH, EdD, Chair, Department of Nursing - Mt. Mercy University

Professor of Nursing Mary Tarbox has been on the Mount Mercy nursing faculty since 1977. She serves as the Nursing Department Chair. Prior to coming to Mount Mercy she worked as a pediatric nurse at the University of Chicago Hospitals and Clinics, and in various public health nursing roles. Dr. Tarbox belongs to the American and Iowa Nurses Association, the Association for the History of Nursing, Kappa Xi Chapter of Sigma Theta Tau, and is a member of the Board of Directors for Aging Services, and the Catherine McAuley Center in Cedar Rapids. She is also a member of the Nursing Interventions Classification research team at the University of Iowa.

She has been recognized as one of the 100 Great Nurses of Iowa for 2008, and was awarded the Iowa Nurses Association Region 2 Nurse of the Year award in 2007. She participates in a wide variety of service projects, including volunteering at the Catherine McAuley Center.

Marni Bussell - Iowa Medicaid Enterprise

John Colbert, Esq., JD - ASAHP

Marni Bussell joined Iowa Medicaid Enterprise in 2010 and operates as the Project Director for the State Innovation Model (SIM) grant for the Medicaid office and leads health home, HIT, and ACO initiatives.

She has over sixteen years of experience in health information technology, working on both state and national level projects.

She earned her Project Management Professional certification in 2009.

John became Executive Director of ASAHP in 2012 after the retirement of long time Executive Director Thomas W. Elwood, who stills serves as Editor in Chief of our Journal of Allied Health. Prior to becoming Executive Director, John was a consultant to ASAHP for many years and has nearly two decades of experience in both work force and higher education issues, serving in the Executive branch, as well as working with Congress.

As a senior official in the Clinton Administration, he served both as an agency Chief of Staff and legislative liaison with Congress. He has been instrumental in helping ASAHP expand the scope of allied health programming, activities, and loan forgiveness as part of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act, as well as the array of funding activities for which ASAHP members are eligible at the federal level.
